Cook's Delight

We've combined two of our favorite companies, Studiopatró and O oils and vinegars, to make the perfect gift for the cook on your list. San Francisco graphic designer Chris Weber has created natural linen dishtowels that are strong, thick, wonderfully textured, and truly improve with use. We have chosen a few of our favorite designs in natural and rustic oatmeal linen. A tasteful towel will be tucked around three lovely bottles of vinegar and oil from O. The assortment will include O Jalapeño Lime Olive Oil with a kiss of heat, O Pomegranate Champagne Vinegar that is sweet, round, and subtle, and O Sudachi Lime Rice Vinegar with a unique citrus and peppercorn flavor. The Thrill of the Grill

Take your grilling to the next level with Cedar and Alder grilling planks, and Eatwell Farms Thyme & Rosemary Salts. Each wooden grilling plank holds a single-sized portion allowing each guest to season his or her own meal. Crafted from hand selected alder and cedar wood, the planks impart a subtle smoked flavor that enhances any piece of seafood or meat. Eatwell Farm's herbal salts are blended from herbs grown on their organic Sacramento Valley farm and French grey sea salt. The burst of flavor they impart is exceptional.
